YEARBOOKS have been ordered, and will arrive around the middle of April.

EXCITING UPCOMING EVENTS:

*Our Grade 5 classes will be presenting their Wax Museum on March 9 in the gym. Each student has researched a subject to portray. Family members are invited to attend....teachers have sent home a schedule of time slots.

*Mrs. Dart's third grade class will host their parents for a "Biography Breakfast" on March 6, 7:30-8:10 AM.

NEXT WEEK IS "SAY SOMETHING WEEK"

It is a national call-to-action week to celebrate students being 'upstanders' in schools and communities by speaking up when noticing warning signs of danger. Thousands of schools and youth organizations from across the United States participate in Say Something Call to Action Week. Our counselor, Mrs. Nicholson, will continue to talk during lessons next week about how we can "say something" through words, actions and creativity to help others.
